Reflection

The book of Job tells the story of a faithful man who endures immense suffering. Despite losing everything, including his children, Job never loses faith in God. God responds to Job’s questioning heart by reminding him of His power over creation and suffering. Jesus and His disciples are caught in a storm at sea. While the disciples panic, Jesus sleeps in the boat. He calms the storm and questions their lack of faith.

Stewardship

In our trials, we often panic and struggle to stay afloat. Yet, like Job and the disciples, we forget that our Savior is with us. Even when it seems He is absent, God is suffering alongside us. Remember, no matter what storms we face, God is in control, and His presence is unwavering
