Reflection

When we live our lives doing the will of God, there will be days that are hard. Just because we are doing what the Lord is asking of us, doesn't mean every day will be perfect. As a matter of fact, we might be led to rejection or suffering because of what we believe. The moment we are faced with that conflict, we are called to respond as Amos did — not by turning our back on God, but rather, remaining faithful to Him. God has a plan, even in the darkest moments. We are called to trust in His ways.

Stewardship

We can be sure that the journey for the apostles was filled with joyful moments and extremely hard trials, similar to the prophet Amos in our First Reading. Yet, because they entrusted themselves completely into the hands of God, they knew it would all work out for their good. So how do we say "yes" to God like the apostles and Amos? It is easier to say "yes" when we are not attached to what is around us. A simple practice of self-denial and surrender go a long way.
